"How to make your colors sing for a more dynamic painting; Studio Oil Landscape"

Workshop Instructor: Lori Keith Robinson

Date: Tuesday to Thursday, April 16th-18th, 2024

Time: 10 AM - 3 PM

Location: Skidaway Island Methodist Church

LAA Member Cost: $300 (see registration for Non-Member Pricing)

Workshop Description:

This workshop will focus on how to make your colors sing by understanding color combinations and the importance of a “dirty” color, by using thoughtful underpainting to build layers, and by understanding the nuances of the colors you see to allow you to “push” your colors for richness. The instructor will demonstrate different color palette setups, and encourage exploring change when you are in a rut.

The instructor will also teach the importance of shadows for rich value contrasts and help you use composition and directional patterns to bring the viewer into your painting.

You are encouraged to bring a few images of your choice from which to develop a painting, either on your laptop or printed on paper. Print them in color and large enough to work from. Or, the instructor will provide images from which you may work.
